Mr Ryrie was much better known to all of you than to me although I had the pleasure of making his acquaintance some twenty years ago, and ] have always understood and believed that he was one of the ablest and most independent members who have ever sat at this Council Board. I am sure I need not justify my selection of Mr Belilion (applause); he has been in Hongkong for the last thirty years, and it is well known by many residents that he has always had the best interests of the Colony at heart (Applause.) I have no doubt that he will be a popular member, and that he
